

Josh Golden, I Fall Down

I don't know how to say this
But I swear I saw it coming
Not much of a surprise
When you looked me in the eyes
And said sit down, so we sat down
And the worst fall for me was
The best fall for you and
I can't hold it in
I'm just not that strong

Chorus:

Cause I fall down and you fall out
Of love with me
And everything we used to be
And I can't say, that I'm okay
When my heart breaks in two
For you

1, 2, 3 and it's over

Yeah

And I can't believe I'm saying this
What a waste
That I never would've met you
Cause we were here
And now you're there
Oh no I need breath now
Can we sit down
And I can't pretend, like you pretend
You know you are
You've always been

Cause I fall down and you fall out
Of love with me
And everything we used to be
And I can't say, that I'm okay
When my heart breaks in two
For you

1, 2, 3 and it's over

So show me your tears if your really crying
You know I deserve to know
So show me your fears if your really dying
You know I deserve better

Better

Yeah

Cause I fall down and you fall out
Of love with me
And everything we used to be
And I can't say, that I'm okay
When my heart breaks in two

For you

1, 2, 3 and it's over

And it's over

And it's over

Yeah
