

Josh Golden, This Can't Be Happening

Thought about everything you said
And now I know why, well
I was wrong, see I never meant to be
I said, I never meant to be
Your favorite breakup song
Well love turns into hate
And your persistent, well it's persistently
Killing me, cause I remember when
I could run to you and your arms would be wide open and you would Carry me
This can't be happening
It's just not fair
Will someone someone wake me up
This is a nightmare
The girl of all my dreams
Is now my worst fear
Would you please help me out
Cause she's just not there
In and out
Our love was like the current
But I don't think it's coming back now
Cause I remember when
I was down and broken
And you would come to me and you'd see me through
This can't be happening
It's just not fair
Will someone someone wake me up
This is a nightmare
The girl of all my dreams
Is now my worst fear
Will you please help me out
Cause I'm just not there (oh)
You said you'd be there through it all
The first mistake and we'd start to fall
You said you'd be there
You said you'd be there
You said you'd be there through it all
The first mistake and we'd start to fall
You said you'd be there
You said you'd be there
This can't be happening
It's just not fair
Will someone someone wake me up
This is a nightmare
The girl of all my dreams
Is now my worst fear
Will you please help me out
Cause she's just not there
It's just not fair
Will someone someone wake me up
This is a nightmare
The girl of all my dreams
Is now my worst fear
Will you please help me out
