Josh Kelley, Lover Come Up

Thunder, hard rain, I'm lonely I know you're lonely too Late night, thinking I need you I know you need me too

So when you get the nerve Just call and give the word Cause you're really something baby, hey hey

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up Cause you're something, baby

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up Cause you're something, baby

When I'm touching you Flawless, undressed I'm nervous, I know you're nervous too Motion, no rules I'm learning, I know you're learning too

So when you get the nerve Just call and give the word Cause you're really something baby, hey hey

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up Cause you're something, baby

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up Cause you're something, baby

Speak to me woman
I got to hear you calling
Sing, so I know what you're looking for
I might not give you what you want little darling
But you better believe, I'm sure, sure gonna give you what you need

So when you get the nerve Just call and give the word Cause you're really something baby, hey hey

And when I get the urge I'll bring the love that you deserve Cause you're really something baby, hey hey

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up Cause you're something, baby

I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up Cause you're something baby, hey hey

Wanting you, feel so right, feels so nice
