

Josh Rouse, In Between

Maybe I was right
So just lay off for a little while
And we could work it out some other time
You and your narrow mind
Can just go on and stay awhile
Cause I've got better things to fall apart

When the secrets, they aren't worth fighting for
People, they stay in between
And in between you'll stay
In between you'll stay
In between you'll stay
I know you're only borrowed
For now

Did it just in spite of all the boys
Who stood in line
To see your pretty face against the light
You and your new find
Can just go on and stay awhile
Cause I've got better things that fall in line

When the secrets, they aren't worth fighting for
People, they stay in between
And in between you'll stay
In between you'll stay
In between you'll stay
In between you'll stay
I know you're only borrowed
For now

And when the secrets, they aren't worth fighting for
And people stay in between
And in between you'll stay
