Josh Rouse, Saturday

I would swim across the ocean I would lay down on a bed of nails But III spare you all the bullshit I will spare you all the desperate details

Saturday Im on that plane Im flying home to you

And when our time is lonely and you know When our time is hard to be away And Im playing my guitar in some basement club A thousand miles away

Saturday Im on that stage Im feeling down and blue Saturday Im on that plane Im flying home to you

Ooh, hell yeah Ill be home soon Hell yeah Ill be home soon

I will treasure every moment
I will lay down on the couch and watch TV
And when youre done with work
And I will take you to see a matinee

Saturday Im on that stage Im feeling down and blue Saturday Im on that plane Im flying home to you To you

Ooh, hell yeah Ill be home soon Hell yeah Ill be home soon Hell yeah Ill be home soon Hell yeah Ill be home soon
