

Josh Rouse, Women And Men

The current will rise much faster, makes it harder to find what I'm after

The water's up, the waters down and I can't swim when I am lost and you are not then no one wins

Our babies have known no father, makes it harder to call I don't bother bottle up, bottle down, is how

Chorus:

But you won't see me because I won't be there to help you asleep when you get scared it's the absence

I can't erase what the past is, it's time to face circumstances..as the sun comes up, the sun goes down

Chorus:

That you won't see me because I won't be there to help you asleep when you get scared it's the absence

It's nice to come home for a weekend the children have grown, how I've missed them

As I pull up and you walk out we smile again the grass needs cut, cuddled up just woman and man
