Joss Stone, Just one kiss

It was

That one kiss from you

That changed my life

In just a minute, girl

It was

That one kiss from you

That changed my life

Into a world of gold

It was just

That kiss from you

That showed me

What I truly

Needed most

Needed most

It was just

That kiss from you

That showed me life

Can be so beautiful

Beautiful, beautiful

Oohooh, oohooh

Oohooh, oohooh

It's like

You're taking the words

Right out of my mouth

(Yeah)

And say exactly

How I feel

(Yeah, yeah)

I could fool a few

But never you

Never you

So I keep trying

To find

Yeah

You sure picked

The right time, lady

(Hmm)

To come into my life

(You know I did)

One kiss from you

One kiss from you

And then I knew

Oohooh, oohooh

That this

Was something

Oohooh, oohooh

Just one kiss from you

That changed my life

In just a minute, girl

(Hmm, yes it did)

It was just

That kiss from you

(Oohooh)

That showed me life

Can be so beautiful

Beautiful, beautiful

Oohooh, oohooh

Oohooh, oohooh

Come on, girl

Come on, boy

Bring it on down

Bring it on down Come on, girl

Come on, boy

Bring it on down Bring it on down Come on, girl Come on, boy Bring it on down Bring it on down
