Journey, Still She Cries

(Perry/Schon/Cain)

Tears that she kept from me Somewhere there's broken dreams Where love once used to be

All in a memory With time we are forgiven In time we will forget

[Chorus:]
I hear her voice in the night
Cries of joy
We were good... good...good...
I still recall how we'd touch, how we'd fall
We were good... good...

Tears that she kept from me Someone she used to be Forever yours then suddenly One kiss she can't remember

I wish I could forget

[Chorus]

Still she cries Somewhere... still she cries No one knows when lovers will walk away

I hear her voice, in the night Cries of joy... We were good... good... good...

All in a memory Where our love once used to be Good... good...
