Joy Electric, Candy Cane Carriage

Pink a snow sleigh ride You are good, you were kind And the magic book defines To be young and in love Is a gift laced in gold All the years have made me scared Just to give me something to share

Oh, what can I do when you break my heart in two? Oh, what can I feel when you break my heart in pieces?

Better bees than bears Is what you used to say As the pollen filled the air And the junebugs would sing We made sun colored rings And you kissed me in the trees And you said you'd never leave
