

Joy Electric, Disloyalist Party

Diseased and taken sick
Sworn allegiance to the advocates
Barbed wire and swinging whips on the backs of those you once called friends
Left field conspiracies turn to rot upon which you still feed
From greed and malcontent come the cries of one who's marked

Disloyalist
Misery ever after
Disloyalist
Misery ever after

Self righteous views and quotes
Deny the one you claim to be your hope
Misused philosophies
Contradict your own reality
Lack of wit, but half as wise as all the logic you seem to despise
From beaks of ignorance come the cries of one who's marked

Disloyalist
