

Judas Priest, Escape From Reality

Judas Priest prezentuje utwór "Escape From Reality" z płyty Invincible Shield" (premiera 8 marca 2018)

Some days I feel inside that all is lost
I'm in a maze and can't return
Or wake at any cost
I can't explain it when the good turned bad
In free-fall feeling nothing from the emptiness I had

Agony escape from reality brings you down

If i could turn back time I would return
Back to the place and memories I left to crash and burn
What felt right back then I could never see
The foolish ways of my mistakes would come back haunting me

Agony escape from reality brings you down

Get lost in a psychedelic haze
Levitating to a place that will amaze
Trance-sending in a void of time and space
Hallucinations from another worldly place

Still I'm prepared to bring it all to bear
Put out my hand to anyone to take what I'll repair

Agony escape from reality
