

Judas Priest, Here Come the Tears

Once I dreamed that love would come and sweep me up away
Now it seems life's passed me by, I'm still alone today
Here come the tears
Looks like it'll always be the same
No one here to comfort me
Here come the tears
All alone, no one cares
So much to give to you all out there
Take me now, in your arms
Let me rest, safe from harm
Ohhh I want to be loved
I need to be loved
Won't somebody love me
Here they come, here come the tears
Here they come, here come the tears...
