

Judd Cledus T, A Great Day To Be A Guy

I've got socks dryin' in the microwave hair on my back I don't plan to shave
I got the house to myself while the wife's away I'll be rockin' all night!

I think I'll drink me an ice cold brew Lounge in my boxers like I used to do, there'll be no Ally McBeal on the tube, no...
I'll be watchin' the fight.

Well, it's a great day to be a guy;
playin' cards with my buddies until sunrise, You know...I never thought that my neighbor would be sunbathing topless, Lord she sure looks good.

I caught a ten pound bass out on the lake played eighteen holes with my best friend Jake.
Best balls I hit is when I stepped on a rake well that wasn't too bright.

Now I look in the fridge, what do I see?
Last night's pizza starin' back at me-pepperoni and anchovies-what a beautiful sight!!

Well it's a great day to be a guy
Buck-naked in my lawn chair, swatting at flies Got some hot dogs on the charcoal grill I don't wanna burn the weiners but I probably will

That fried bologna and cheese macaroni tasted good this afternoon, but now I'm passin' some serious gas and I might have to leave the room...

Well, I might go get me a new hairdo, spend a couple of hours at a tanning booth might even get me a gold front tooth (oh ah!)

And it's a great day to be a guy, but when my wife gets home she's going to tan my hide.
I'll be hung over but lookin' good from a weekend of relivin' my bachelorhood

It's a great day to be a guy, but another week of this and I'll probably die I tend to party harder than I should When my wife's not here to make me be good...
