

Jude Harrison, Deeper

If we don't talk
That's okay
Cause I hear everything
That you say
You got my heart to mend to you
A hole that hurts inside
It shows
And you can't hide
But if we open up
We'll break through
You and I go deeper
Down below where no one sees it
When you close your eyes
And just believe it
You and I go deeper
Where everything's unspoken
And the world seems so wide open
To me now
You got broken once before
Closed your heart up
And said no more
We were trying not to fall
Afraid of letting go
Wait until we know now
You and I go deeper
Down below where no one sees it
When you close your eyes
And just believe it
You and I go deeper
Where everything's unspoken
And the world seems so wide open
To me now
And the morning shines much brighter to me
Somehow (somehow), yeah
Maybe this can last forever
If we fight off what we feel
Can you love me like I know you will?
You and I go deeper
Down below where no one sees it
When you close your eyes
And just believe it
You and I go deeper
Where everything's unspoken
And the world seems so wide open
To me
You and I go deeper, yeah
Down below where no one sees it
And just believe it
(You and) I go deeper (deeper, deeper)
Where everything's unspoken
And the world seems so wide open
To me now, yeah, yeah
