

Jude Harrison, Fade to black

Three days
Eight hours
Fourteen minutes gone
You bend
I'll break
Like in every song
Maybe I'm too scared to call
Maybe I'm too tough to fall
Everything you are
Everything reminds me of
Everything you are
Fades to black
Every time I see your face
Screaming the secrets we've shared
We fade to Black
I call out for your warm embrace
Feel your tears fall
Upon my face
What makes me so bullet proof ?
What makes me act so moved ?
Everything you are
Everything reminds me of
Everything you are
Fades to black
Every time I see your face
Screaming the secrets we've shared
Feels like I'm running
Running as fast as I can Feels like I'm trying
Trying to understand why I keep crashing as hard as I can into you
Everything you are
Everything reminds me of
Everything you are
Fades to black
Every time I see your face
Screaming the secrets we've shared
Everything you are
Everything reminds me of
Everything you are
Fades to black
Every time I see your face
Screaming the secrets we've shared
We fade to black
