

Jude Harrison, Natural disaster

Am I another casualty
In the battle you're fighting?
You're your own worst enemy
At war with yourself but you can't see
And I can't stand to watch your comet coming fast
Everywhere you go it seems lightning strikes and then you crash
I don't know how you do it, It always ends the same
Everywhere you go it seems lightning strikes but there's no rain
no rain
Feel like you're moving in slow motion
And you don't know where you're going
You tried it all and it's too boring
Tighten up your grip cuz it's a long way down
And I can't stand to watch your comet coming fast
Everywhere you go it seems lightning strikes and then you crash
I don't know how you do it, It always ends the same
Everywhere you go it seems lightning strikes but there's no rain
Watching you slip away
It's getting harder everyday
When you're coming down like a hurricane
I can't stand to see you in pain
So I'll just look away
I can't stand to watch your comet coming fast
Everywhere you go it seems lightning strikes and then you crash
I don't know how you do it, It always ends the same
Everywhere you go it seems lightning strikes but there's no rain
no rain, no rain, no rain, no rain, no rain, no rain, no rain, no rain no rain, no rain, no rain, no rain, no rain, lightning strikes but there's no rain, no rain
