

Jughead, C'mon

Delilah... sits in a temple and stares
With magical eyes she wears
Will I stumble over her?
Will I fall?

Come on... Delilah... on burgandy drive
Come on... Delilah... she's workin' till five
Come on... Delilah... she's buried alive
Come on... just walk away
Come on... that's what I say
Come on

Delilah... how do you wear two hats
I never quite meant to do that
Will I stumble over her?
Will I fall?

Come on...

Are you listening to me?
Tell me am I only talking to myself
Delilah... sits in a temple and stares

Come on... Delilah... on burgandy drive
Come on... Delilah... she's workin' till five
Come on... Delilah... she's buried alive
Come on... just walk away
Come on... that's what I say
Come on... just walk away
Come on...
