

Jughead's Revenge, The People's Pal

Dealing with me
A waste of your time
You say that I'm an asshole
I say get in line
Inside your head you think I'm planning
But I don't even think of you at all
And for that I'm nailed through the balls
I won't apologize
For going off
For calling your bluff
For breaking all you throw in my way
And I won't say sorry
For ridding out
No need to worry about
You and the ones who say they know me
I'm the one
Unreasonably me
Constantly bombarding negativity
Inside your head you think I'm winning
But I'm not even in the game at all
Poor excuse for a person who failed to
Live up to you
I used to be the guy
(Who'd) co-operate and comply
For nothing more than to be
Last in line
Better you than me
Dealing with you
Is a waste of my time
It gets me nothing more
Than pissed off and behind
Inside your head
You think I'm responsible
But I'm not even in your realm at all
