<lyrics>
By the lips of your sweet, sweet taste
Your whisper gently breaks away the sadness
Well where's your sweet, sweet kiss?
You're my sweet boy

You're far away and I'm alone, losing my mind
You're far away how badly I need you

Sweet taste it brings the breeze to me at night
By the clouds I ask for you
Quickly to me return if you can

By the lips of your sweet, sweet taste
Your whisper gently breaks away the sadness
Well where's your sweet, sweet kiss?
You're my sweet boy

You're sweet, my naughty boy

The night without you, like a wild beast, is lonely and no one's
And what to make for me now when there's no lines for you
And the only taste of sweet lips saves me from all anxieties
By the clouds I ask for you
Quickly to me return if you can
