

Julia Michaels, Happy

don't kiss in front of me it makes me sick
I'm not bitter well, maybe a little bit I'd sniff glitter if I's help me feel something real and If it was my birthday I'd make a wish to not be bitter cause I'm getting sick of this I'd skip dinner if I's help me feel something real and sometimes I think I kill relationship for art

I start up all this shit to watch 'em fall apart
I pay my bills whit it
I watch 'em fall apart
then pay the price for it
I watch 'em fall apart
but..

I just wanna be fucking happy
I just wanna be fucking happy

I'm sending out texts at 4 m
I'm not desperate I just want somebody's skin in my denim cause it helps me feel something

and sometimes I think I kill relationship for art
I start up all this shit to watch 'em fall apart
I pay my bills whit it
I watch 'em fall apart
then pay the price for it
I watch 'em fall apart
but..

I just wanna be fucking happy
I just wanna be fucking happy
oh, oh, oh, ho

and sometimes I think I kill relationship for art
I start up all this shit to watch 'em fall apart
I pay my bills whit it
then pay the price for it
I watch 'em fall apart
but..

I just wanna be fucking happy
oh, oh, oh, ho
I just wanna be fucking happy
