

Julia Nunes, Happy Medium

Anyone know anyone at all cause if there's a real problem then why stall hit me, I'm as ready as I'm gonna be

I'm trying to find a happy medium
I'm starting to think it isn't here
well if you see me face down with a magnifying glass I'm warning you to not come near

Can we get past all the eye rolls and angry sighs get it over with so I can apologise for the first time for the last time for the millionth time I should start a line can I help who is next dump all your problems I wont be complex cause at 3 am when my eye lids sag I sure don't mind being your punching bag

I'm trying to find a happy medium
well if you see me face down with a magnifying glass
I'm warning you to not come near

I know that you think I'm fine but I have lost something of mine and there's one more place you haven't looked not caught on tape or story booked

I'm trying to find a happy medium
well if you see me face down with a magnifying glass
