Julia Pietrucha, Midsummer Day's Dream

I would share my home Not to be alone If you cry I'll bake a pie Someday see my belly right In the depth on you blue eyes And if you run I'll run with you And if you high I'll high with you It's truth, truth for you And if you die I'll die with you Let my pray ... Still it waits me up to dark And it's truth for you I'll spend my life with you!
