

Julie, Could You Be Mine?

Was the day when I first saw you
It really didnt take more than one look
I felt it right away
That warm n crazy feeling
If you were mine
I would never let you go
You're like a dream

Outside its raining
The sky keeps crying with me
Cos I am being sad
When I ought to be glad
Inside its hurting
Cos I am falling in love with a man
That I know I can't have

Will you ever know how I feel?
I know that you belong to someone else
Though I know that I still
Dream away about you
Could you be mine?
I will always let you know
That I love you so

Outside its raining
The sky keeps crying with me
Cos I am being sad
When I ought to be glad
Inside its hurting
Cos I am falling in love with a man
That I know I can't have

Baby I know you're the one
I never felt this way before
I wish I could just let you know
Find a way to make it show
But I dont know how

Outside its raining
The sky keeps crying with me
Cos I am being sad
When I ought to be glad
Inside its hurting
Cos I am falling in love with a man
That I know I can't have
