

Juliet, New Shoes

I've got my best dress, and new shoes, my best face, and bells on for you tonight.

A dangerous attraction was my first impression, would you take me home tonight?

And if I don't have you, I don't have nothing at all. And if I don't need you, I don't need nothing at all
To break my fall.

Please do take notice as I am delirious. High on the nonsense oh are you oblivious? Hold on to let

And if I don't have you, I don't have nothing at all.
And if I don't need you, I don't need nothing at all.

I'll find my way home. Not to worry 'bout me. I'll find my way home, spare your sympathy.

I've got my best dress and new shoes and great face and bells on for you.

And if I don't have you, I don't have nothing at all.
And if I don't need you, I don't need nothing at all.
And if I don't have you, I don't have nothing at all.
And if I don't need you, I don't need nothing at all
