

Juliette And The Licks, Got Love To Kill

Woman
Skip in and walk like you own the place, baby
Move on
You gotta get your groove on
And take it all

Didn't you want to change the world
Like a child in flight
But then you turn and walk away
Say goodbye to another day

Hey hey ho ho...

Strong man
You're trying to raise your fists with nothing to fight
Slow down
Ain't no enemy but yourself lover

Didn't you want to change the world
Like a child in flight
But then you turn and walk away
Say goodbye to another day

Hey hey ho ho...

What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be, do you want me
What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be, do you want me
Is that even a question in your mind

So don't f**k me discontent
Like your love is spent
When I'm lying alone
Baby, where's your home
You're looking for me
It's all for free
I've got love to kill for my man of steel
Burning cold
Telling me no
You're burning cold
I can't let you go
No I can't let you go

Hey hey ho ho...

What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be, do you want me
What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be, do you want me
What's it gonna be, baby
What's it gonna be, do you want me
What's it gonna be
What's it gonna be, do you want me
Is that even a question in your mind
