

Juliette, Liar

Cause you're a liar, liar, liar
You were my only one desire
Yeah, you supposed to be my fantasy
You just disappointed me
'Cause you're a liar, liar, liar
My heart was burning like a fire
But I looked into your eyes
And I realized that you're a liar, liar, liar

Do you remember you promised me heaven?
You said that I'm the one that you adore
I told you lately I'll be home at seven
That was a big surprise as I came home at four

No, I don't hate you like before
Just go
I don't want you anymore

'Cause you're a liar'

Do you remember we used to be happy?
You said you'd stop to love me only if you die
I can't believe that you so disrespect me
Why did you make me cry? Why did you lie?

No, I don't hate you like before
I don't want you anymore

'Cause you're a liar'

No, I don't hate you like before
I don't want you anymore

'Cause you're a liar, liar, liar
You were my only one desire
Yeah, you supposed to be my fantasy
You just disappointed me
'Cause you're a liar, liar, liar
My heart was burning like a fire
But I looked into your eyes
And I realized that you're a liar, liar, liar
