

Jump Little Children, Aimless

Saturday's as good a day as any
As any day, I'm telling you
If only I was given half a chance
But who cares? I don't
I'm easily upset.

Where am I?
I feel as though I've been here before
Maybe I'm just walking round and round
It's a beautiful day to be aimless.

Saturday's as good a day as any
As any day will never be
And never will I give her half a chance
Cause I know, I'm so
Easily upset.

Take my word
I've never ever been here before
Maybe I'm just losing track of time
It's a beautiful day to be aimless.

Good as any day might ever be (two, three).

Restless afternoon
Why don't you give me a break?
I should go for a walk
But I get lost easily
Yes, I
I get upset.

The city streets are filled
With the five o'clock traffic
Lots of people headed home
I've got nowhere to go
It's a beautiful day to be aimless.

As good a day as any
Given half a chance
As good a day as any
Given half a chance.

It's a beautiful day
A beautiful day
A beautiful day
To be aimless.
