

Jump Little Children, Not Today

I'm sure someone would hear me if I screamed
But not today
I'm sure someone would notice if I seemed
Out of touch
Or way behind
But not today

I don't mind being onely once in a while
But not today
I'm sure someone would hear me across the miles
If I'm out of touch
Or way behind
But not today

Not today
On any other day
But not today
Everyone's miles away

I've never really been that hard to find
But not today
I'm sure that I could keep it off my mind
If I'm out of touch
Or way behind
But not today

Not today
On any other day
But not today
Everyone's miles away

Hey hey
On anyother day
