

Jurga, Spiderwoman - Rising

I don't need a Spiderman to save me
Cause I'm a Spiderwoman, my baby.

When I was just a little Spidergirl, boy
I cried on a pink wall for one fly
I eat two days ago, ousps
It was so sad, sad.
It seemed that my life was broken
For the very first time
I cried a sea of tears
It was so long time ago
and now

I don't need a Spiderman to save me
Cause I'm a Spiderwoman, my baby.

I remember the first boy I met
He was a Spider-hero, we were a nice duet
But he was so busy that I felt like a tin lizzie.
I didn't want to be an old car-woman,
So I took same days off.
It wasn't bad, bad.
It's not so bad to have all the time in the world,
Isn't it?
I walked in the midnight, I saved some people, I stopped some wars, I put out some fire
This time all alone
It's my ordinary day. Do you like it?

I don't need a Spiderman to save me
Cause I'm a Spiderwoman, my baby.
