

Just Jinger, All Around

I should be sleeping
But I'm still seeking While others hide from what's to be today

Everything's routine
It feels like I'm shooting
The same scene on the same old piece of film

I've tried to walk away
I've tried so hard to pray
But after all I found
My feet still hit the ground

All around, all around
It's in my head, it's in my head

I try to talk to you
To help yourself come through You're fortunate your life is in your hands

Though you've tried to walk away
You tried so hard to pray
But after all you found
Your feet still hit the ground

All around, all around
It's in my head, it's in my head

For now I feel this way
As I step into the day
I find it hard to be
The one I wish was me
I still feel this way
As I step into the day
I find it hard to be
The one I know is me

All around, all around
It's in my head, it's in my head
