

Just Jinger, Feeling Loving

Warped by the feelings of past disappointment
It's all a game up and down
How can it be so confusing, all arrangements
It's all a game up and down

I can't explain feelings out loud now
For certain and I
Seem to be all a rut
I'm feeling loving, I'm feeling loving,
I'm feeling loving
It's going by, it's going by, it's going by

Love in the sense of the word right and wrong scenes
It's all a game up and down
People in love make me sick, open emotions
It's all a game up and down

How come it's sad but so happy at times,
I'm asking you why
It changes when you die

I'm feeling loving, I'm feeling loving,
I'm feeling loving
It's going by, it's going by, it's going by

How come it's sad but so happy at times
It changes when you die

I'm feeling loving, I'm feeling loving
It's going by, it's going by, it's going by
