

Just Jinger, She Knows

She falls asleep
Through all the noise
For all I know
We dream the same
She finds all my weaknesses

She knows just what to do
She knows just what to do
Only yesterday, speaks for yesterday
And where she lies
There is no sound
For all I know
We dream the same
She finds all my weaknesses

She knows just what to do
She knows just what to do
Only yesterday, speaks for yesterday

She finds all my weaknesses
She knows...
