

Justice, By My Side

Raindrops Falling on my shoulders yeah yeah
As the wind blows through my hair na na na na
But I don't care no how I feel now woah ooh woah oh
Because I know no you're not there

Because I know no you're not there yeh
Because I know no your're not there woah

But I can feel my heart is breaking yeah yeah
And I can see it in your eyes oh oh oh oh
It is another chance I'm takin' woah oh oh
Until I see you by my side

Clouds surround my head so dark now yeaaay
As the tears fall from my eyes woah oh oh oh
My mind just tells me to give up now woah
How can I leave it all behind

How can I leave it all behind woah
How can I leave it all behind woah

But I can feel my heart is breaking yeah yeah
And I can see it in your eyes woah
It is another chance I'm takin' woah
Until I see you by my side

My soul is finally yeah secure now yeah yeah
My eyes can see the sky so blue woah oh oh oh
The clouds are gone my tears have dried now
And now I'm standing here with you

But I can feel my heart is breaking yeah yeah
And I can see it in your eyes oh oohohoh
It is another chance I'm takin' woah oh oh
Until I see you by my side
