

Justifide, No Reply

You say that I am nothing to you
I cry myself to sleep
A lonely burden on you is me
And I have no one to turn to,
I'm all alone

Chorus:
What did I do? (x4)

Now I am older and still I feel the same way as before
An abandoned child lives inside of me
Still cries the same question
And waits for a hopeless answer
Still receives no reply

Chorus:
No reply (x4)

He took me in His hands
And showed me what I was missing
He taught me to forgive but not forget
Because that's not possible in this case...in this case

Chorus:
In this case (x4)

Please tell me why, (why)
I can't get it outta my head
These thoughts still haunt me
Still I ask why
Please tell me why (why)
I can't get it outta my head
These thoughts still haunt me

Chorus:
Still I love you (x4)
