

Justin King, Devil And The Deep

You're swept away
A tidal wave that leaves you numb for days and days
Fall back asleep
The only place where your dreams might mean anything
All your wasted time
Oh, there's no rewind
You can't back get back lost chances
Are you waking up?
Are you still between the devil and the deep blue sea?
Are you drifting up?
Are you lost between the devil and the deep blue sea?
Cut in two the ???
But it's the last thing that you want to do
You're kept at bay
You know that you are the only one to blame
Are you wasting time
Oh, there's no rewind
You can't back get back lost chances
Are you waking up?
Are you still between the devil and the deep blue sea?
Are you drifting up?
Are you lost between the devil and the deep blue sea?
Are you waking up?
Are you still between the devil and the deep blue sea?
Are you drifting up?
Are you still between the devil and the deep blue sea?
