

Justincase, Say

Well i tried to tune you up
Like my guitar but
I've never had much luck
With playing hard stings
Well i know
No i hope
That your the that i'm dreamin of
And i've waited for so long
To wake up and hear you
Say you'll let me take you anywhere
Say i drive you wild all the time
Say you'd do almost anything
Say you'll never change
Well i can't wait to beleive
That you could be perfect
That i'll have everything
And nothing will stop me
Well i know
You will be the one who understands me
And i've waited for so long
To wake up and hear you
Say you'll let me take you anywhere
Say i'd drive you out all the time
Say you'd do almost anything
Say you'll never change
I hope you wouldn't mind
Seepin sideways
And i hope you find the time
To do things my way
Say you'll let me take you anywhere
Say I drive you wild all the time
Say you'd do almost anything
Say you'll listne to my music
Say you'll sing along with every word
Say i'm not askin to much
Say you'll let me take you anywhere
Say i drive you wild all the time
Say youd' do almost anything
Say you'll never change
Say you'll never change
Say you'll never change
