

Justincase, Tell Me

Snow is falling across the streetlights
It's nothing I can change
Summer left me and I wish you hadn't
Before you took the chance to say
All the things you didn't say

I know the stars won't fade
But they just don't shine
Since you went away

[chorus:]
Tell me, am I a fool?
Thinking that you
Needed me there
Maybe I'm wrong
I don't belong

Acting as if I knew
What I mean to you

Watching sunrise, coffee at noon
All the things that I miss now like I miss you
And I wonder what you're thinking
And I wonder what you're doing now
I wonder if the same things that got me down
Are getting you down

Who knows maybe I'm to blame for hanging all my faith
On yesterday

[chorus]
What do I mean to you?
