

K-Ci & JoJo, How Long Must I Cry

Baby, listen

I never meant to be so, so hard on you

But my, my pride had me thinkin'

Thinkin' that it was the right thing (That's right)

But girl, I really love you

And it's drivin' me crazy

That you're not here to hold me anymore

[1] - How long must I cry

How long do I have to try

To make happiness my friend

And how long will it be

Until you've come back to me

And let me feel your love again

I said I really love you

And girl, I'm thinkin' of you

There's no one in this world

Could take the place of you

Because you are my baby

And you drive me crazy

There's nothing else I would say or do

If I don't have you back in my life

I'm willing to live and die for you

Baby, don't you know that my words are true

I really love ya, still thinkin' of ya

Can't imagine livin' life without ya

I really miss you, no need to dis you

Can't live another day without you

And everything I said to you, baby it's true

I do love you, baby
