

K-Ci & JoJo, So Emotional

[Intro]

Ah, yeah

Ah, yeah

Ah, yeah, yeah

I get so emotional

Whenever I touch you, whenever we kiss

I get so emotional

You're so beautiful, yeah

[Verse 1]

You do to many, whatever it is you do to me

You make the whole world stop

And stand still (And stand still)

Now everytime I see you walking by

I can see the reason why you're special to me

I thank God every day

Every time I see your pretty face

[Chorus]

I get so emotional

Whenever I touch you, whenever we kiss

Girl, it's so physical

Whenever you're around, I can't resist

It's so sexual

Whenever you do that thing with your lips

I get so emotional

You're so beautiful, yeah

[Verse 2]

Incense and candles

Flowers and slow jams

Champagne and cherries

Acoustic seranades

Girl, you're all those things

To my life, this is what you bring

Nights of passion, days of joy

Girl, you're all I want and more

[Chorus]

I'll give you everything you want, lady

I'll give you everything you need, baby

I'll give you anything you want, baby

I'll give you everything, lady

I'll give you anything you want, baby

I'll give you everything

I'll give you everything

I'll give you anything you want, lady

I'll give you everything you need, baby

[Chorus]

You're so sexy, you're so sweet

Girl you got just what I need

You're so sexy, you're so sweet

Girl you got just what I need
