

k.d. lang, It's Happening With You

(Piltch/Lang)

Everything i do
Deliberately for you
Everything i see
I'm seeing differently
From every point of view
It's happening with you

In this crazy
World full of lemons
Baby...
You're lemonade

Everywhere i go
I'm going with the flow
Every turn i take
Becomes a piece of cake
No matter what i do
It's happening with you

Everything i say
Comes out a different way
Every sound i hear
Is music to my ears
It's too good to be true
It's happening with you
