

k.d. lang, You Can't Lose A Broken Heart

(James P. Johnson / Flourney E. Miller)

Don't lose your head
Then lose your guy
You can't lose a broken heart
If you ever break up
Then try to make up
It's tough to make a brand new start

Take a walk
Think it over
While strolling neath the moon
Don't say things in December
You'll regret in June

Ware your remark
Before you speak
Or you may be sorry soon,
Don't be erratic
Be diplomatic
To keep your heart's in tune

Cruel harsh words
Often spoken
Will upset your applectart
So don't lose your head
Then lose your guy
Cos, you can't lose a broken heart
No, you can't lose a broken heart!
