

K-Maró, All over again

I'm international whether you like it or not so incredible bitch believe it or not fresh air from every city, I'll take it to go have a sip with me, you're ready to go now it's a long long road to make it to heaven but I'm a lucky motherfker I should make it by seven life is smiling at me and I'm smiling right back pull the swagger of me it will pop in right back now everybody knows I got something for the anthems I like it when it's blasting makes me feel standing so high that my hands can touch the sky It's my comfort zone that no fortune can buy so try to stop me if you want to, you think you could or try to buy me if you rather do, my market value is good a hundred mil'and you could mind my own business I can sit on my throne watch you and witness this is so crazy but it's all good the pressure's all on me but trust me I'm good I'm ready for a long run going back at it again
I ain't dreaming I'm starting all over again
This is so crazy but it's all good
The pressure's all on me but trust me I'm good
I never felt stronger here as I stand
Now as I'm starting all over again Stupid talk to me, I want to know what you think I guess bitching in this business is a popular thing
So what you think about a little French hip hop artist That flipped twelve mils before you noticed And didn't have a 300 million people local market
I had to be smart ? address straight to my target Straight to my pocket and I made it look good Living la good life between a Cuban and a krug
And it's now time for me to do it again
At almost thirty you're looking at a more mature man I'm done with the rims, done with the over iced Done with the timbs I'm looking for a nice spot Where I can build and settle down on the water side Dock my yacht and sip hard on a chichi pipe So come see if you want to We'll have a little drink and talk business if you want to this is so crazy but it's all good
the pressure's all on me but trust me I'm good
I'm ready for a long run going back at it again
I ain't dreaming I'm starting all over again
This is so crazy but it's all good
The pressure's all on me but trust me I'm good
I never felt stronger here as I stand
Now as I'm starting all over again
