

Kaffe, Lorraine (EUrovision 2005)

Standing here alone again
Waiting for the moment that we shared, my love
No matter how many lies you'll say
No matter how many miles you'll walk away from me
Lorrain

Here I am, all alone
Waiting for the moment again
But I know that you are gone
You've got to know that higher than the rain
Sweeter than pain
I can still remember Lorrain in the rain
Calling you again and again
Awake for your name
I can still remember Lorrain in the rain
Whispering your name again
Singing prayers among the stars
For you my sweet Lorrain
You've always given me some great times
But you imagine how will I survive away from him
My Love

Here I am all alone
Waiting for the moment we shared
But I know that you are gone
You've got to know that higher than the rain
Sweeter than pain
I can still remember Lorrain in the rain
I'm calling you again and again
Awake for your name
I can still remember Lorrain in the rain
I can still remember, I can still remember
I can still remember in the rain
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no,
'cause you're my sweet Lorrain
I can still remember Lorrain in the rain
I'm calling you again and again
Awake for your name
I can still remember Lorrain in the rain
