

Kalan Porter, After All

Every time
Not what you wanted
You can't rewind
This house will stay haunted

Rain will fall
Drowning out the sun
Everything's coming up roses
In spite of all we've done

Then I look in their eyes
Even after the fall
There is good here after all
Through the faintest of smiles
In the chaos I saw
There is good here after all

Trapped in the past
Moments that shine
Burn out too fast
Dimmed by a lifetime

Rain will fall
Drowning out the sun
Everything's coming up roses
In spite of all we've done

Then I look in their eyes
Even after the fall
There is good here after all
Through the faintest of smiles
In the chaos I saw
There is good here after all

There is good here after all
There is good here after all
After all

Then I look in their eyes
Even after the fall
There is good here after all
Through the faintest of smiles
In the chaos I saw
There is good here after all

[REPEAT]

Life is good here after all
