Kamelot, Future Kings

Long time ago
The seed was sown
A child born in Uther's name
Conceived in sin
The future king
A new realm of truth proclaimed
They came from far
To meet this man
They saw he was just and wise
The flags unfold
The fires rise
Reflecting the force in his eyes
Fighting for the crown
Pride and honor to be found
Born from sin
Into Merlin's hand
Once and future king
Vomed to return again
In moonlit haze
Among the hills
Sir Mordred,Morgana's shade
Would slay his king
Forever cling
To darkness his powers fade
Fighting for the crown
Pride and honor to be found
Born from sin
Into Merlin's hand
Once and future king
Vomed to return again
Bedivere,my best of knight
This sword i beg you take
To the place where it belong
And throw it in the lake
Into the war
Forever more
The people shall follow the chosen one
As when alive
His will survives
To rest on the island of Avalon
