

Kamelot, The Ties That Bind

Resurrection in a life beyond the black
I am not afraid
I know what I must do
Preparation for the harvest of my deeds
There is no looking back
Salvation isn't free

Before my eyes a world benign
I stand to protect what is mine

Word by word and line by line
I follow your voice through the fire
And nothing will disarm my mind
To cut the ties that bind

Jurisdiction to enforce the only truth
And when I say your name
Forgiveness is for me...

Appear before my feverish eyes
I trust you to lead when I'm blind

Word by word and line by line
I follow your voice through the fire
And nothing will disarm my mind
To cut the ties that bind

I have sold my soul
Hesitation's for the weak
I'm your faithful tool
Dispose of me as you wish
I say your name again and put my blame aside
And I tell myself the end
Will justify my selfish means...

Word by word and line by line
I follow your voice through the fire
And nothing will disarm my mind
To cut the ties that bind
Cause no one can disarm my mind
To cut the ties that bind
