Kano, Another Life

Here we are at last with nothing left to say now 'Cause everything that's gone will never be And I lost it all that one and lonely blue night Everything was fine

Yes, I know I should have waited for you, baby Where were you when I was needing you?

And a hundred times I called but you were not there

You were far from me

Another life, another lover

Where in the world do lonely dreams ever go?

Another night, another blue day It is so long, long, long, long

Why not tell me that you cared so much to keep me 'Cause you knew it was the only thing that mattered

And now it's time for us to go together

Without games or lies

Where you sit and watch me smoke the lonely night away There must be something more that's left for somewhere Something that will save this love forever

It must never die

Another life, another lover

Where in the world do lonely dreams ever go?

Another night, another blue day It is so long, long, long, long, long (x 2)

Yes, I know I should have waited longer for you

Where were you when I was needing you?

And now it's time for us to go together

Without games or lies

Where you sit and watch me smoke the lonely night away There must be something more that's left for somewhere

Something that will save this love forever

It must never die

Another life, another lover

Where in the world do lonely dreams ever go?

Another night, another blue day

It is so long, long, long, long (x 2)
