&lt;/lyrics&gt;

Quietly flows, a white
dry cloud just passes
An ash colored me is just vanishing quietly

Watching...

The stars are collected
in the made "castle of sand";
My little prayer
smashed under those footsteps ambushed and carried by the wave..

a world of darkness...
a world of silence...

a prayer that disappeared
in the wind, stirred up
Still, the light is continue

As I tangling many times
By the hand that getting cold

The made "castle of sand"
ambushed and carried by the wave..

a~ To you
