Karen Clark Sheard, Couldn't Tell It If I Tried

God's been so good, I couldn't tell it if I tried
I could have been dead, down in my grave
But you told death, stand back and behave
Sometiems I sit and cry
there;s so many reasons why
God's been just that good

God's been so good, I couldn't tell it if I tried
I could have been dead, down in my grave
But you told death, stand back and behave
If I had a thousand tongues it still wouldn't be enough
God's been just that good

Always making a way out of no way
Been so good - than you Lord
Oh yes, oh yes, been so good thank you Lord
Sometimes I sit and cry - there's so many reasons why
God's been just that good

[VAMP:]
Couldn't tell it, couldn't tell it
Couldn't tell it been so good (2x)

Couldn't tell it, couldn't tell it
Couldn't tell it, thank you Lord

Sometimes I sit and cry
There's so many reasons why
God's been just that good
