

Karen Lehner, Amazing

With just one look at you my whole life changed
I didn't know that I could feel
After all the years of loneliness and pain
Love is real

My heart escaped me - you caught it midair
And you didn't let me fall
I slept beside you through the good and despair
Mistakes and all

Do you remember the night that I awoke
To find you watching silently
You told me you didn't want to sleep
For in sleep you would be too far from me
That's amazing

With just a look from you,
A touch, I come undone
There's no protection for my soul
I barely recognize the woman I've become

You made me see the best in me

Amazing - □amazing

I guess I'll love you until the day I die
But there are worse things I could feel
After all the years loneliness and pain
Love is real

I may not understand just how we fell apart
I've wished a galaxy away
But if this were the last moment of my life
I'd still have to say
In every way
